FATAL ATTACK OF CRAMPS

No One Saw Isaac Rothman
Drown—Wife Mystified Over Husband's Disappearance.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
NORFOLK, VA., July 6.—The finding of a body in the waters of the Chesapeake this morning told of a tragedy at Ocean View yesterday. The body proved to be that of Isaac Rothman, a young man who came here as the representative of a company to sell Jamestown Exposition souvenirs. He had an office in the Atlantic Trust Building and boarded with Mrs. Whitlock, on Holt Street. He went to Ocean View yesterday afternoon and went in bathing, and the body was found in a bathing suit when recovered, his clothing being found in one of the rooms of a bath-house there. He was nineteen or twenty years of age. Nothing was known of the drowning till the body was brought ashore. It is thought that he was seized with cramps.

While bathing yesterday afternoon in a pool of water known as "Devil's Reach," near the Belt Line Railroad, back of South Portsmouth, George E. Sutton, a young resident, of Frontis Place, Portsmouth, was drowned. His body was recovered a short while afterwards and was removed to the home of the deceased, where it was prepared for burial.

Sutton was enjoying the bath in company with four others. It is supposed that he was seized with cramps. He sank to the bottom of the pool before his companions could reach him. He was twenty-three years of age.

Wife Is Mystified.
L. Moseley, living over Prince's saloon, at 624 Main Street, in which he has served as bartender for more than sixteen years, is missing. Mrs. Moseley says that never before during their married life has her husband absented himself from home without telling her, and she fears that some harm has befallen him.

The last that Mrs. Moseley saw of her husband was Friday. They had planned to make a trip to Pine Beach Friday evening, and Mr. Moseley went out to get a shave, telling Mrs. Moseley to meet him at the corner of City Hall and Monticello Avenues. Mrs. Moseley went to the point named and waited for some time, but her husband did not appear. She then went home. The police have the matter in hand.

SEVERE STORM SWEEPS AMELIA

Trees Brown Down, Wheat
Sheaves Scattered, Stable
Unroofed.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMELIA, VA., July 8.—A vast black cloud, Sunday afternoon about 4 o'clock, passed along the northern side of this county from a northwest to northeasterly direction, then varying south. While very little rain fell in the neighborhood, of this place the wind was terrific, trees were blown down, others were stripped of limbs, and the wheat and corn which had been cut during the week and stood in shocks in the fields were blown and scattered over a large part of the county; in many fields not a shock was left standing; some few outbuildings were blown away, and the roof was taken completely off and carried a distance of about 100 yards to Mr. J. A. Ellett's farm. His machine house was also torn down and his binder badly injured.

WANTS HIGH SCHOOL.

Meeting of Citizens of Caroline to Take Steps to Supply Need.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
BOWLIN GREEN, VA., July 8.—A considerable number of citizens were present to-day notwithstanding this was not the regular meeting of the citizens of the county, held for the purpose of taking steps for the establishment of a high school here. State Superintendent J. D. Eggleston was here, and made an earnest appeal to the people to take advantage of the opportunity, and by all means establish the school; that Caroline was one of the eight or ten counties of the State which did not have a high school, and its people had prospered in a very marked degree for the last five or six years, that other counties not so well off had established them.

A committee was appointed by the county superintendent to solicit private subscriptions for the erection of the building and to report to a meeting to be held two weeks hence.

the theft of gold watches and money from the office of a coal company there, was captured in Western North Carolina, and to-day was taken from here to Big Stone Gap. McKinney is said to have served one term in the Tennessee penitentiary. He was recently under arrest at Knoxville, Tenn., but escaped from jail with a cleverness that amazed the sheriff.

STABLE FALLS IN.

Negro Boy Standing Near His Narrow Escape—Vehicles Demolished.

DANVILLE, VA., July 8.—The rear end of the livery stable of J. E. Helms & Company fell in yesterday morning, entailing a loss of several thousand dollars. The building is a three-story frame structure, and owned by P. R. Jones, Jr.

Lot for Federal Building.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 8.—

The authorities at Washington have accepted the lot in this city on the corner of Hanover and Princess Anne Streets, known as the Haydon lot, as the site for the public building. It is thought that condemnation proceedings would be necessary, but commissioners were appointed and the price fixed; $6,500 has been accepted as satisfactory both by the government and owners.

Visits Boyhood Home.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 8.—

N. A. Howison, of Texas, son of the late John Howison, of this city, who was born and raised here, is now on a visit to his old home for the first time for thirty-three years. He is the only surviving son of five brothers. He has a wife and six children, and will return to his home in a few days. He is enjoying his stay and is being heartily welcomed by all of his old friends.

Dr. Powell Nominated.

LAWRENCEVILLE, VA., July 8.—In one of the most spirited contests ever held in Brunswick, Dr. R. S. Powell defeated I. E. Spatz for the Democratic nomination for the Legislature in the primary held in the county Saturday, by a majority of forty-seven, and J. W. Elam defeated F. B. Roberts for the State Senate by about seven hundred majority in the district.

Renner—Haines.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., July 8.—Miss

Hattie Virginia Haines, young daughter of George Abraham Haines, and Mr. Samuel H. Renner, of the Virginia Woolen Company, this city, were married this evening at the parsonage of Bradock Street Methodist Episcopal Church, South, by Rev. D. H. Kern. They will reside in Winchester.

Public School Library.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 8.—

The teachers of the public schools of this city recently organized a movement which culminated in the establishment of a public school library in this city, which has just been opened with interesting ceremonies.

Designates Irvington.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
FREDERICKSBURG, VA., July 8.—

Irvington, on the lower Rappahannock River, has been designated as a station for treatment in the Marine Hospital Service, and Dr. W. J. Newbill, of that place, has been appointed acting assistant surgeon at that station.

Railway Co. Adopted.

THEIR CONDUCT OFFENSIVE

White People Complain of Being Crowded from Sidewalk by Negroes.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
PETERSBURG, VA., July 8.—The Board of Aldermen at a meeting this afternoon concurred in the Council's adoption of an ordinance creating a Committee on the Council and Board of Aldermen, who shall from time to time render reports on what they deem advisable changes in the city charter and ordinances. The members of the committee are to be appointed by the Council, and the Council and Board of Aldermen. The new ordinance was presented at the last meeting of the Council by C. W. Bland, chairman of the Finance Committee. The Board also concurred in the Council's adoption of the Gas and Light Committee's report, recommending that the city make a contract with the Virginia Passenger and Power Company for three years, with power of extension to five, for street lights at the present rate of $67 per light per year. The Council resolution, offered by F. G. Stratton, ordering a monthly meeting of the Lower Appomattox Board, was not approved by the Aldermen. A resolution, offered by W. E. Poole, providing for a $500 appropriation to improve the race-track at West End Park, was heartily opposed by several speakers, and was adopted.

Importing Greek Workmen.

After unsuccessful efforts to secure negro laborers in Europe, the work of digging up Bank Street, preparatory to laying a vitrified brick pavement, Contractor Murphy, of Port Huron, Mich., is importing Greek workmen from New York. Twenty-four Greeks started work this morning and twenty more are expected to come around to-morrow. The reply given to fifteen negroes who applied after the Greeks had started.

A Fire in Dr. J. G. Rennie's Stable in the rear of his residence on Union Street, yesterday morning, destroyed the building, and burned a young driving horse so severely that the animal was shot. A quantity of feed and two sets of harness were also destroyed. A lighted cigar or cigarette is believed to be the origin of the fire, which entails a loss of several hundred dollars. The horse and stable property, except the stable, which was insured.

Darkey With a Pistol.

A young negro, who gave his name as John Taylor, and claimed to be from Dinwiddie county, was fined $20 in the Mayor's Court this morning for carrying a concealed pistol, and in default of payment went to jail, where he was subsequently identified by Chief of Police Ragland as John Rivers, who was sentenced to four years in the penitentiary by the Hustings Court of this city in March, 1902, for breaking into the store of P. W. Smith. The court sent Rivers to the reformatory on account of his violent behavior, but he escaped after a few months and reappears here to-day.

Negroes Block Sidewalk.

C. Blankenship, the young white man charged with assaulting Walter Gates, colored, on Grove Avenue last Friday night, acknowledged his guilt before the Mayor this morning, and was fined $10 and costs. When the case came before the Mayor this morning the negro identified Blankenship as one of two men who had assaulted and beaten him without any cause whatever while he was walking along Grove Avenue with a little negro girl. As Blankenship denied the charge, and the testimony of other witnesses failed to prove the guilt of any one expected, the case was continued until this morning, when Blankenship acknowledged his guilt, saying that the negro gave offense by brushing against him. Because of the young man's frank acknowledgment of his part in the fight a jail sentence was not imposed. The offensive conduct of negroes on the public streets of this city in blocking sidewalks and otherwise interfering with the passage of white people is generally so flagrantly unprovoked that the rarity of resulting difficulties is remarkable.

Death of Mr. Endalley.

Emmett Endalley, a young married man, who came to Petersburg from Charlotte county eight years ago, died Saturday night at his residence on West High Street, after a long illness. Mr. Endalley was twenty-five years old, and is survived by his young wife, his mother, Mrs. Mary E. Endalley, and one brother, W. J. Endalley, of Richmond. The funeral took place yesterday, the interment being in Ettrick Cemetery.

OF YOUNG JOE P. DAVIS

When (He was Arrested as Deserter, Miss Blanks

Came Forward, Charging Him With Robbing

Her of Her Savings—Had Been Intimidated.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., July 8.—Joe P. Davis, a young white man, who has been living here for the past two years under the name of Charles Thomas, was arrested to-day on the charge of being a deserter from the United States army and for defrauding Miss Nannie Blanks, an orphan girl, of $225. Davis has been employed as brakeman for the Southern Railway, and his arrest was made at the request of the War Department. After being jailed, Miss Blanks was confined in the hospital here, about twelve months ago, Davis secured possession of a certificate of deposit of $225 on the First National Bank here, and forged her name to the paper. They were boarding in the same place, and she confronted him with the crime. It is alleged that he threatened her at the point of a pistol if she attempted to prosecute him. The girl declares that it was fear of being harmed that caused her to keep no serious disturbances. All of the precincts except Averetts, a small precinct, have been heard from, which will not change the result. Those nominated are: W. R. Beales, for sheriff; G. T. Barksdale, for Commonwealth's attorney; H. N. Beales, county treasurer; S. P. Read, House of Delegates; J. D. Elam, Senator. There are all good men, and will fill their respective offices creditably.

WOUND FATAL AFTER FIVE YEARS

Blood Poison Sets In from Injury
Which Captain White Sustained in 1902.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
DANVILLE, VA., July 8.—George W. White, a highly esteemed citizen, and formerly jailer and deputy sergeant of Danville, died to-day after a long illness. Five years ago a pistol dropped from the pocket of Mr. White on the street here, and, upon striking the pavement, exploded. He sustained a wound in the thigh, which disabled him from further duties, and which caused his death. Blood-poisoning set in, and for some time his life has been despaired of. Mr. White was sixty-three years of age, and served throughout the Civil War in Stuart's command. He leaves the following children: George W. Jr., Jerry, Phil G. and James W. White, of Danville, and Mrs. E. V. Boone, of Tusculum, Ala.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE.

Measrs. Sandy, Prof. Knapp and Editor Jackson at Amelia Courthouse.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
AMELIA, VA., July 8.—Under the direction of Mr. T. O. Sandy, of Nottingham, a farmers' institute was held here to-day. Mr. C. N. Stacy presided. Professor Knapp, of Lake Charles, La., and Mr. J. F. Jackson, editor of the Southern Planter, delivered addresses on "Improved Methods of Agriculture." Mr. T. O. Sandy talked especially on "Grass Culture," showing his method of producing six tons of hay to the acre. Mr. Wilson, State demonstrator for the Department of Agriculture in Mississippi, accompanied Professor Knapp. Mr. Stacy closed the meeting with a few remarks on improved farming, especially on profitable marketing of the crops grown. The audience included many ladies, but was not as large as was desired, owing to the fact that the farmers had to recover their wheat from the effects of the storm and the hay harvest was also in progress.

Those present, however, expressed themselves as pleased and profited by the day's lessons.

Weds Winchester Girl.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
WINCHESTER, VA., July 8.—Announcement was made at the evening of marriage a few days ago in New Orleans, La., of Miss Lillie Hance Calvert, daughter of late William H. Calvert, of Winchester, to Walter Sullivan, a prominent young business man of New Orleans. They are now spending their honeymoon in Winchester. Their future home will be in New Orleans.
